

Chase & Associates is the leader in executive search for the packaging industry in North America. We deliver the highest caliber candidates for world-class companies to create successful management teams strategically designed to grow businesses.

Our Firm

Chase & Associates is an executive search firm on a mission: to drive our clients' success by finding them the top talent in their industries. We provide experienced leadership and hands-on guidance in the search process to both client and candidate.

A boutique firm by choice, our firm has built a reputation of responsiveness, professionalism and excellence through long-term relationships with both clients and candidates. We balance objectivity with a deep knowledge of the packaging industry, 40 years of experience and a passion for recruiting.

We excel at placing management, director and executive level candidates in sales, marketing, business development, product management and technology.

We learn the nuances of your company, get the story straight, sharpen the message and hit the candidate market with a concise, clear and informed message. This information enables us to determine the background, skill sets and personal style that is necessary for successful alignment and integration of candidates.

Our Team

We take a personal approach in an extremely competitive business. Our firm combines market focus with an emphasis on quality and rapid results. Our team members understand that absolute confidentiality is a cornerstone of executive search.

Chase & Associates has national offices in California, Florida and Texas.

For Candidates

At Chase & Associates, we bring an unmatched commitment to our relationships with candidates. Our investment in our candidates, results in a thorough understanding of their background, skill sets and personal style, all necessary components in matching you with the ideal role. Our direct industry experience means that we have relationships with key players at the best companies from small startups to large publicly trading corporations.

Our promise to candidates:

Confidentiality - we will treat you with dignity, discretion and total professionalism

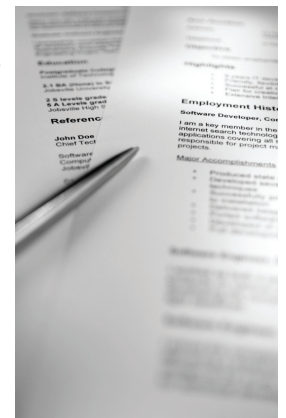

Honesty - we will be candid with you and give you a complete overview of an opportunity

Thorough evaluation - we will not waste your time with opportunities that do not meet your goals

Meaningful feedback - we will offer you feedback to make each situation a learning experience regardless of the outcome

Follow up - we respect your time and will not leave you without closure

We think of ourselves as career counselors as much as executive search consultants. We are in it for the long haul and intend to be there for you throughout your entire career to not only present you with opportunities but to offer advice at critical junctures in your professional life.
